Unified School District No. 386

Ballot Question 1

"Shall the following be adopted?"
Shall Unified School District No. 386, Greenwood County, Kansas, change its method of electing school board members from the SIX MEMBER DISTRICT METHOD where the school district is divided into six member districts and one board member is elected from each member district and one board member is elected at-large to the AT LARGE METHOD where the school district is not divided into any member districts and all board members are elected at-large?

Yes

No

Ballot Question 2

"Shall the following be adopted?"
Shall Unified School District No. 386, Greenwood County, Kansas, change its voting plan for electing school board members from Voting Plan B to Voting plan A?

Voting plan B, the current voting plan for USD No. 386, permits all qualified electors who reside in a particular member district to vote in the primary election for the member positions of such member district and for the at-large member position, and further permits all electors who are otherwise qualified according to law, and who reside in the school district, to vote in the general election for all member positions, including the at-large member position, to be filled.

Voting Plan A, the plan that the district proposes be adopted, would permit all electors who are otherwise qualified according to law and who reside in the school district to vote in both the primary and general election for all member positions.

Yes

No
